Notes on Personal Information Collection

- 1. The personal data supplied in the form are for the purposes of processing the application and maintaining the statutory register kept under section 69 of the Insurance Ordinance. The purposes of the register are to enable any member of the public to ascertain which insurance brokers are authorized under section 69 of the Insurance Ordinance and the identities of their registered chief executives and technical representatives and to ascertain the particulars of the authorization or registration of such brokers, chief executives and technical representatives. The application will not be accepted if the applicant fails to provide the requisite information. Such data will also be used by the IA for purposes of performing its functions, including monitoring or other actions necessary to the discharge of such functions.
- 2. In the course of performing its functions, the IA may, as permitted by law, match, compare, transfer or exchange the data provided by the applicant with data held, or hereafter obtained, for these or any other purposes by the IA, government bodies, other regulatory authorities, corporations, organizations or individuals in Hong Kong or other jurisdictions for the purpose of verifying those data.
- 3. The applicant may be entitled under the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Cap. 486) to request access to or to request the correction of any personal data supplied by the applicant, in the manner and subject to the limitations prescribed therein. All enquiries should be directed to the Personal Data Privacy Officer of the IA at 19/F., 41 Heung Yip Road, Wong Chuk Hang, Hong Kong.
