Full commencement of United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) Ordinance
and
United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) (Amendment)
Ordinance 2004

The United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) Ordinance (Cap.575) (“the Ordinance”) and the United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) (Amendment) Ordinance 2004 (“the Amendment Ordinance”) will be fully implemented on 1st January 2011.

Background

2. The Administration enacted the Ordinance and the Amendment Ordinance in 2002 and 2004 respectively to fulfill Hong Kong’s international obligations to combat acts of terrorism and terrorist financing under United Nations Security Council Resolution 1373¹, the Special Recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering (FATF)² and other relevant International Conventions³.

3. The Administration published in the Gazette in 2002 legal notice 137, and legal notices 172 and 173 in 2004 to commence the operation of certain provisions of the Ordinance and the Amendment Ordinance. The other provisions of the Ordinance and the Amendment Ordinance which remain uncommenced (“the uncommenced provisions”) can only take effect after the relevant court rules and code of practice have been made. The court rules and code of practice have been passed by LegCo in December 2009 and July 2010 respectively. Accordingly, the Administration published in the Gazette legal notices 133 and 134 in October 2010 to bring the uncommenced provisions, including section 6 of the Ordinance, into operation on 1st January 2011.

² Hong Kong has been an active member of the FATF, an inter-governmental body which recommends standards and best practices in countering money laundering and terrorist financing. In October 2001, FATF made eight Special Recommendations, setting out the key legislative and regulatory steps that the FATF considers jurisdictions should adopt to stop terrorist financing. In October 2004, FATF made the ninth Special Recommendation.

³ The relevant Conventions include the International Convention for the Suppression of Terrorist Bombings, the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts Against the Safety of Maritime Navigation and the Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts Against the Safety of Fixed Platforms Located on the Continental Shelf.

Freezing Provisions under the Ordinance

4. Section 6 of the Ordinance authorizes the Secretary for Security to freeze the property of terrorists or of persons connected with terrorists. Section 14(2) and (3) of the Ordinance provides that it is an offence to knowingly contravene a notice under section 6(1) or contravene a requirement under section 6(7) without reasonable excuse. Section 15 of the Ordinance further sets out the supplementary provisions applicable to the licenses mentioned in section 6(1) or 8 of the Ordinance. As regards the application to the Court for a licence or variation of a licence and the application for revocation or variation of a notice or direction under section 6, the relevant provisions are set out in section 17(1)(b), (2), (3)(b)(iii), (4), (5), (6) and (7) of the Ordinance. The requirements of section 6, section 14(2) and (3), section 15 and section 17(1)(b), (2), (3)(b)(iii), (4), (5), (6) and (7) of the Ordinance are set out in full at Annex A.

5. Pursuant to the provisions set out above, if the Secretary for Security has reasonable grounds to suspect that any property held by any person is terrorist property, he may, by notice in writing (sample at Annex B), specify the property and direct that a person shall not, directly or indirectly, deal with the property except under the authority of a licence granted by him (samples at Annex C and Annex D). Section 6 (10) also provides that the Secretary for Security may, in a notice under section 6(1), give a direction that an authorized officer may, for the purpose of preventing the frozen property being removed from the HKSAR, seize the property and give directions to deal with the property concerned (sample at Annex E).

6. For details, please refer to the provisions of the Ordinance (Ordinance No. 27 of 2002)⁴ and its Amendment Ordinance (Ordinance No. 21 of 2004)⁵. Please consult a solicitor and/or a barrister for questions on the legal responsibilities and legal rights provided under the Ordinance. For enquiries about the notice or licence under section 6 of the Ordinance from law enforcement perspectives, please contact the Financial Investigations Division, Narcotics Bureau of the Hong Kong Police Force at (852) 2860 3401.
